

President's Note: It's a Good Time for Genealogy

by Jim Jackson, President

It's a good time for genealogy. This may seem to contradict reality — with cutbacks at many research libraries — but positive signs are all around us.

With the sesquicentennial of the Civil War observance through the next five years, this historic event in our nation's history will be exposed in print, film and television. If your ancestors were living in the United States, they were involved in some way. The Civil War anniversary kickoff this April will be followed by the Bicentennial of the War of 1812 next year.

The new season of "Who Do You Think You Are?" is now on the air. Last season had top ratings for its Friday night spot. Not bad for a show about genealogy.

Several full-day seminars are available in Michigan this year. For information about genealogy events in Michigan, see the Michigan Genealogical Council's Community Calendar on the web at <http://www.mimgc.org/calendar.html>.

Three cruises with a genealogy theme are offered this year. There are two Exploring Your Roots cruises — the Royal Caribbean Eastern Caribbean cruise, June 5–12, and the Royal Caribbean Bermuda cruise, October 22–27. The 8th Annual Legacy Genealogy cruise, September 29–October 8, travels from New England to Eastern Canada. For more information, see <http://bit.ly/iitT2v>.

Most of these opportunities were not financially possible when I started my family research. Today, they are great opportunities to invite non-genealogist friends and family to tag along while you enjoy time together. And, who knows, maybe they'll discover how interesting family research can be. ■

Newsletter Focus: Membership and Surname Directory

It's time to get to know our members! In this issue you will find a membership list showing the name and contact information for all 125 CCGS members. Also included is a list of 682 surnames our members are researching. The purpose of this issue is to enable you to put the two together and use our membership to further your research.

Make some connections! Find a surname that matches yours and contact the member to see whether you share common lines. It's all about sharing — one more benefit of being a member of the society.

If you have not updated your surname list with CCGS lately, feel free to send a new list to the CCGS Membership Committee Chair at the address on page 2. It will be kept on file to publish in next year's membership directory. Address corrections are also requested. ■

Here's What's Happening: Pass It On

Excellent programs are coming our way! See the back cover of this newsletter for details about the next several CCGS meetings.

February Meeting Features Library Lock-In

The society's February meeting is a special event on a nonstandard date. For the third consecutive year, CCGS will hold a Library Lock-In in cooperation with the Helen Warner Branch of Willard Library in Battle Creek. On Friday, February 25, the library will close at 6 p.m. and reopen at 7 p.m. for genealogists and family historians only! Special sessions will cover many aspects of genealogy and the resources available at the library. Bring your laptop computer or use one of the library's computers or film readers. Participants will enjoy free printing during the lock-in. Space is limited, so register early.

Please register in advance with George Livingston by calling Willard Library at (269) 968-8166, extension 604. The Helen Warner Branch is at 36 Minges Creek Place, Battle Creek, MI 49015. Driving directions can be found at <http://bit.ly/fmwCoG>. ■

CCGS Welcomes New Board Members and Seeks More Leaders

The board recently filled several vacant positions. We welcome Dave Eddy as Vice President; look for the long-time member's profile in the next issue of Generations. Returning to the board after some time off is Anita Stuever as Publication Committee Chair. Verla Potts was affirmed Cemetery Transcriptions Committee Chair. Pending board approval, Marcie Telfer will be Membership Promotion Committee Chair and Sandy Redmond will chair the Seeking Leadership (nominating) Committee.

CCGS has room on its board for more leaders. If you can consider serving as Newsletter Committee Chair (Generations editor), delegate to the Michigan Genealogical Council, or chair of a committee — whether Making Connections or Promotion of Genealogy — please contact President Jim Jackson at (269) 288-1655 or jjacks01@yahoo.com.

The Making Connections Committee provides research and aid to genealogists. The Promotion of Genealogy Committee carries out projects that promote genealogy, such as the Pioneer Certificate project.

With no staff, volunteers are the lifeblood of our society. It takes many hours to carry out the important work of an active society, but many volunteers make light work.

Officers and committee chairs attend monthly board meetings to make important decisions for the society. It's rewarding to have a hand in carrying out worthwhile projects, meeting people and having fun in the process.

The board meets in Marshall on the third Thursday of the month. If you couldn't serve because of the board's Tuesday meetings, now is your time to volunteer!

Please consider sharing your time and talents. ■

CCGS Thanks Longtime Volunteers Ann Heisler and Ilene Woodman

The society thanks two longtime dedicated CCGS volunteers who have decided to step down from their board positions. Ilene Woodman is stepping down as Membership Committee Chair after many years of service. Ann Heisler has stepped down to prepare for a February 17 surgical procedure with a potentially lengthy recovery period.

Ann was newsletter editor, co-webmaster, Facebook page creator and prime mover in finishing the society's new cemetery book — all despite living several counties away! We thank both Ilene and Ann and hope to continue seeing them at the society's monthly programs. Our thoughts will be with Ann and her mother Peggy Parrott throughout Ann's recovery. ■
