President's Message: I Called, You Sprang Into Action

by Jim Jackson, President

Recently I put out a "call to action" letter to our members and you responded to come to the aid of your society.

Some wanted to help, but were not sure which position would offer the best fit. Others offered to help in a specific position, and the board has appointed them to fill vacancies.

I'm happy to announce that Jan Goodson has volunteered to edit future issues of Generations. Glenda Peckham has joined me as our second delegate to the Michigan Genealogical Council,

Annual Meeting Review

CCGS held its 2011 annual meeting September 27. Congratulations to Sandy Redmond, who was elected Treasurer. Sandy had stepped up to edit several issues of Generations while the society sought a replacement. She also serves as Webmaster and chairs the Seeking Leadership Committee.

President Jim Jackson, Recording Secretary Patricia Teachout and Corresponding Secretary Sandi Hartnell returned to office.

CCGS thanks retiring board members Art Adams, Cindy Wilson and Dave Eddy for their service. ■ and Tom Peckham offered to be Hospitality Committee Chair. We welcome these new board members. Watch for information about these new volunteers in future issues.

We are working to fill the Vice President position, and there is still room for more volunteers. Our committee chairs are always looking for additional members to improve your society and help with the tasks we do to make more Calhoun County records available.

It's not too late to step forward if you are thinking of helping your society in some way. Please contact me or any other board member for more information about openings.

Volunteer recruitment is an ongoing necessity, as our bylaws limit officers to four consecutive years in the same office, and no more than six consecutive years on the board. This means there will be regular turnover in leadership.

The purpose of this is to constantly bring in fresh talent and new ideas. The reality is that unless more members step forward, our society will limp. We have the ability to do so much more for our community and outof-area members who seek our assistance in their research!

> If you are interested in learning more about the open positions or would like to attend a board meeting, please get in touch with me.

The Library of Michigan has discussed moving part of the genealogy collection to the State Archives side of the building, but has not made those changes yet. The library has cut staff and eliminated Saturday hours, but all the books on the second floor are still where they have always been. When you get a chance, visit this excellent resource in Lansing.

We have a great schedule of meetings for the rest of this year. From the Civil War to the new science of DNA research, our programs will intrigue you. See the full descriptions on page 3.

If you have ideas to improve our society, please see me at a meeting or call or email any board member. Contact information for all officers, committee chairs and other leaders is on the reverse side of this page.

Newsletter Focus: Membership and Surname Directory

This issue features the annual membership directory and list of surnames CCGS members are researching. The purpose is to enable you to put the two together and use our membership to further your research. Find a surname that matches yours and contact the member to see whether you share common lines. It's all about sharing — one more benefit of being a member of the society.

All members' addresses were checked for accuracy and format on the U.S. Postal Service's website. With the exception of capitalization, addresses are shown exactly as the USPS recommends for quick and accurate mail delivery. The Post Office prefers addresses in all-capital letters, but an easier-to-read capitalization style is used for publication.

We genealogists are sticklers about accuracy, and we want to get all of your information right! If you believe we've made an error, please get in touch with Membership Committee Chair Marcie Telfer as noted on page 2 — or use the handy form on page 11. Surname, address and spelling corrections will also be welcomed. Before requesting an address correction, you may want to check your address using the tool at https://tools.usps.com/go/ZipLookup. ■

Meeting Lineup Offers a Variety of Engaging Programs

Information-packed programs are slated to round out the 2011–2012 membership year. Here's what's in store.

March 27

The history of funeral customs is a history of humankind. On March 27, Craig Kempf, owner of Craig K. Kempf Funeral Home and Cremation Services in Marshall, will discuss funeral customs of the past 150 years in America, including embalming, viewing, burial and photographing the dead.

April 24

If you are interested in Civil War history or the story of our local Potawatomi tribe, don't miss the April 24 program. Chris Czopek will speak about Sharpshooters in the Army of General Grant: A New Discovery in Calhoun County History.

In 15 years of gathering information on Company K of the 1st Michigan Sharpshooters, Chris discovered that two men from the local Nottawaseppi Huron Band of the Potawatomi fought for the Union in the Civil War. The company was an all-Native American unit that fought in some of the fiercest battles of the war.

Chris will talk about these forgotten warriors — who they were, how they fought, and what happened to them after the war. This will be the first time the story of these brave Potawatomi is told in public.

The Lansing State Journal has called Chris "Lansing's history detective." He has published three books about local history, including Who Was Who in Company K. A book signing will follow the program.

May 22

Learn about Using DNA for Genealogy Research at the May 22 meeting. Presenter Ivan Gilbert, director of the LDS Family History Center in Kalamazoo, has researched all branches of his family tree for 40 years.

The Hastings native struggled with a 30-year "brick wall" on one line in Upstate New York. Finally, he found a few sketchy clues from census, land and probate records connecting him to a colonial family, but no proof could be found.

Because the y-DNA signature for the early immigrant had been established from the DNA of other descendants, Ivan had his y-DNA analyzed to see whether it could validate the connection.

He will provide an introduction to genetic genealogy, share his experience with it, and share insight for using this new technology to break down those "brick walls" where no historical documents exist.

June 26

On June 26, Mary Butler of Heritage Battle Creek will present Identifying Old Photos. You'll learn clues to dating photos based on evidence such as clothing, hair styles and props. Mary is an archivist who plans programs for Heritage Battle Creek and manages the Kimball House Museum in Battle Creek.

Member Tip: Do It Now

by Anita C. Stuever, Publication Committee Chair

y sister Sue and I were working together on our genealogy, and talked about our grandmother's cousin Victor Schoen. Although we had no idea where he lived as an adult, he could still be living.

We searched online and found a Victor Schoen in Indianapolis. He may or may not be "our" Victor Schoen, but Sue addressed an envelope to him. She would write him a note later.

Too often, later never comes. This case was no exception.

A few years later, knowing that Victor had followed his father's footsteps as a United Church of Christ pastor, I decided to check into whether UCC had an archive. If so, I might be able to find information about the two. I found UCC online, with an archive and an archivist. I sent an email message to the archivist offering to pay for any photos, records of churches they had served or other documents that might help fill in our family tree.

Two days later, I received a message from the archivist. Our Victor Schoen was, indeed, retired from a church in Indianapolis. But what stopped me short was one short sentence, "Victor Schoen died yesterday."

If only we had written that note before it was too late.

I did get a wealth of information from the archivist and was able to get in touch with Victor's son, another UCC pastor. But I'll always remember that experience as a reminder to do it now. ■

Kalamazoo Living History Show: Visit With People Who Make History Come Alive

June 18 marks the bicentennial of the beginning of the Show Highlights War of 1812, and this weekend you'll have the chance to get a glimpse into life at the time. 1812: The Northwest Territory — Edge of the Abyss is the theme of the 37th annual Kalamazoo Living History Show scheduled for March 17–18. Sponsors say it's the largest nationally recognized, juried show in the Midwest devoted to pre-1890 original or reproduction living history supplies and related crafts.

The show attracts nearly 300 of the finest craftspeople and dealers of living history supplies and related crafts from throughout the United States, according to Leslie Martin Conwell. Conwell is executive director of the show and president of the Yankee Doodle Muzzle Loaders, this year's show host.

Reenactors in period fashions representing all U.S. wars from the French and Indian War through the Civil War will help visitors examine the struggle for the Old Northwest Territory.

- Native American dancing
- Demonstrations of 18th and 19th century crafts
- Period folk music from around the world
